

We Sell Cellular is pleased to offer our valued customers the following return policy:

Any item determined to be defective can be submitted for return within 30 Days of invoice date. Once the return merchandise is received and verified, a credit will be issued for the device.

No item will be accepted without prior authorization. All RMA numbers issued are valid for 14 days. Items received after expiration will be refused. When an RMA number is issued, please ship your devices to the address shown on the document received. Please include the RMA number on the shipping label. Customer is responsible for shipping back all devices.

We Sell Cellular values our customers and we are committed to helping customers with issues which might occur outside the parameters of our standard policy.
